GERMANY MAKES ANOTHER BID FOR U.S. INTERVENTION

EXPECT CRISIS IN REPARATIONS ISSUE REACHED

Another Week Will See the Completion Of Work.

ALLIES PREPARED

Will Lay Heavy Hand On Germany If Bill Is Refused

Paris, April 8.—Germany has begun a new attempt to obtain American intervention in the reparations issue, according to Pertinax, recognized as the best informed French commentator on foreign affairs.

Herr Bergmann, chief German negotiator on the subject of reparations, according to Pertinax, is trying to confer with Colonel Boyden, U. S. A., who recently withdrew from the reparations commission on orders from Washington, but who is keeping in touch with the activities of that body.

Colonel Boyden has been in the Balkans for the last ten days and his assistants here said they did not know whether Pertinax's story has any foundation in fact. Bergmann has been in Berlin more than a week and his assistants here declared themselves equally ignorant of any new German proposals.

Pertinax in his article declares that France is willing to listen to America and England is glad to conclude an amicable accord, but that she will not yield on the reparations question.

Crisis in We'k

The crisis in the reparations question probably will be reached a week from today when the commission hopes to complete its work and hand the Germans the total bill on the basis of the provisions of the Versailles treaty. Upon formal notice from Berlin that Germany rejects this bill the allies will then prepare through conversations to lay a heavy hand upon Germany's neck, as premier Briand put it during the senate debate the other day.

The French are anxious to move into the Ruhr district as soon as possible after May 1. Despite rumors of a possible earlier action on the French, coupled with the departure next week of French newspaper correspondents to the Rhine, it is unlikely that France will act before May 1 as she is mindful of the effect such action would have upon the allies and America.

Admiral De Gouy urges that in addition to occupying the Ruhr district the allies put themselves in "striking" distance of Berlin.

He further advises the seizure of Kiel canal by a French division, a British brigade and a Belgian regiment, all to be protected by the British fleet.

CONFESSES WHEN TOLD DEATH NEAR

Columbus, O., April 8.—When told she was dying, 17-year-old Ethel Irene Barnett, confined in a local hospital, confessed that she had been subjected to a criminal operation.

The police arrested Miss Ora Womeldorf, 37, who acknowledged that she performed the operation, officers said. The police, also, arrested Mrs. Anna Lucky, 27, who is accused of having induced Miss Womeldorf to perform the illegal operation.

Miss Barnett is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Barnett, living on a Vinton County farm, near McArthur. There are 12 other children in the family.

The girl said she came to Columbus about eight months ago and obtained employment in a candy factory. Shortly afterwards, she met a young man who promised to marry her, she said. The police hope to arrest him today.

BRITISH REFUSE TO COMMENT ON AMERICAN NOTE

London, April 8.—British government officials declined today to comment on the American note regarding the League of Nations mandates. They explained that the coal strike is monopolizing the government's attention just now.

It was added that the governments of France and Japan would have to be consulted before Britain sends a reply to Washington and this probably will delay the answer.

FOUR HELD FOR JURY

Mt. Sterling, Ky., April 8.—William Jones, Cecil Ferguson, Raymond Chambers and Isom Isom, accused of having robbed Joseph Tiran and thrown him from a freight train, were held for Circuit Court under $1,000 bond by county Judge Scuffo today.

YOUNGSTER WHO ELUDED GUARDS TO SEE HARDING

Paul Mann, who.

Though only 6 years old, Paul Mann, a Washington, D. C., youngster, has succeeded in doing what persons many times his age have failed to do. He got by all the White House guards and spoke with the President. It happened Easter Monday, while thousands of Washington youngsters were enjoying the egg rolling fete on the White House lawns. The section of the lawn allotted to the youngsters for the day was fenced off and guards were placed to see that no one entered the Executive Mansion. Little Paul had a big Easter egg decorated with the coat of arms of the United States, which he wanted to present to President Harding. He watched his chance and when the President appeared at one of the lower windows of the White House and waved to the frolicking youngsters, Paul, slipped under the fence, egg in hand, and outstretched the guards to the window. The President shook hands with Paul, accepted the gift and Paul went home happy.

MEXICO TO OPEN WAY TO SETTLEMENT OF ALL U. S. CLAIMS

Treaty With This Country Now Desired as First Step.

Washington, April 8.—Within thirty days Mexico will pass legislation which will silence all opposition to article 27 of the Mexican constitution and will open the way to settlement of American claims according to Manuel C. Tellez, charge d'affaires of the Mexican embassy here, who has just returned from Mexico City.

President Obregon is not considering a treaty with the United States as a preparatory step to recognition but in the immediate future will take important action calculated to impress the nations of the world of the government's honesty of purpose, Tellez said. Included in his program is the immediate resumption of the payment of interest on foreign debts.

A treaty with Mexico guaranteeing protection of American interests and arbitration of American claims was virtually demanded as a condition of recognition by Secretary of State Coby in his letter of last December to Roberto V. Pesqueira, special Mexican envoy.

FATE OF ALLEGED MURDERER NEARS

Covington, Ga., April 8.—The fate of John S. Williams, on the charge of murdering Lindsey Peterson, negro, will be in the hands of the jury today. Closing arguments for state and defense were to be presented early. Judge Hutcheson was then to deliver his charge and the work of the jury scheduled to start immediately.

It was admitted today that an appeal immediately will be taken in case a verdict of guilty is returned by the jury. What the procedure will be in case the reverse is the case has not been made known.

Two other counts in the indictment remain against Williams and he also faces immediate arrest on Jasper county charges should the jury free him.

FIRE DAMAGES RESIDENCE ON SECOND STREET

Home Of William Kelble Is Scene Of Bad Blaze.

LOSS NEAR $1,000

Fire Originated In Closet On Second Floor Early Friday.

Fire and water caused a loss estimated at close to $1,000 at the home of William Kelble, on West Second street, when fire broke out in a closet on the second floor front shortly after 1 o'clock.

The blaze had evidently been smoldering in the closet for some time, before it pierced the door, and broke out in volume in the upper hall. It was the belief of Fire Captain Mahanna, that combustion developed in this room, starting the fire.

The closet in which the flames gained headway is in the front of the house. Eating its way through the door, the fire was drawn up in the third floor thru the open stairway, practically ruining the staircase, and the wood work in the front part of the hall. The flames were shooting the entire length of the upper hall along the ceiling when the fire department arrived.

Firemen attacked the flames through an upstairs front bedroom which though opening on the hall, was closed to the flames. By thus gaining a foothold, the firemen were able to check the blaze at its source. Two streams of water were used in fighting the conflagration, and although household goods in the downstairs rooms were moved out as quickly as possible the loss from water dripping through the plastering and coming down the stair case, will be heavy.

Both the building and the household goods are insured according to Mr. Kelble, who says the loss will be covered.

BELIEVE EMPLOYEES OF P. O. DEPARTMENT HAVE CAUSED THEFTS

Startling Theory Of Robberies Now Is Announced.

Chicago, April 8.—The startling theory that persons within the post-office department having knowledge of methods and time of money shipments by mail have been directing heads of recent gigantic mail robberies in Chicago and elsewhere was advanced today by inspectors and detectives who are endeavoring to solve the robbery late Wednesday at the Dearborn street station here.

Squads of postal inspectors are here today investigating records of many employees of the registry division of the Chicago postoffice. Forty suspects in the Dearborn station robbery, some of them mail clerks, are under arrest.

Although postal authorities have made public no statement regarding the amount of the loot obtained in the Dearborn robbery it has been learned from seemingly authoritative sources that $300,000 was stolen. This consisted, it is said, of $70,000 in cash and the remainder in liberty bonds and securities.

MAYOR APPOINTED

Columbus, April 8.—Former state Rep. W. R. Sprague has been appointed mayor of Portsmouth by Governor Davis succeeding Horace Small, resigned.

EUROPE'S BUYING POWER NEAR EXHAUSTION; AMERICA MUST KEEP EXPORTS FROM FALLING

Foreign Nations No Longer Able To Meet Situation.

Washington, April 8.—Europe's buying power is so near the exhaustion point that foreign trade financing by bills of short maturities is now virtually impossible and American banking and producing interests confront the imperative necessity of keeping exports moving by long time credit plans, Gov. W. P. G. Harding, of the federal reserve board, declared today.

Governor Harding, emphasizing the strong basic financial strength of the country, stated that it is within the power of the United States to stabilize and tranquilize Europe by furnishing it with the necessities and raw materials that it needs, in order that its idle populations may be put back to work and trade relations with the various nations resumed.

Solution of credit problems of the cotton producers and growers of other leading staples, in Governor Harding's opinion, lies in the formation of corporations under Edge laws to assist the financing of goods to be exported. Such corporations, it was

PRINCESS XENIA TO WED LEEDS

William B. Leeds, son of Princess Anastasia, of Greece, who is engaged to wed Princess Xenia, the seventeen-year-old daughter of Grand Duchess Marie, and niece of King Constantine. It is reported that the wedding will probably take place at Athens in June. The young couple plan to reside in America. Leeds is 19. Princess Anastasia was at first upset at the news of her son's proposed marriage on account of his youth, but finally gave her consent.

CEDARVILLE WOMAN KILLED WHEN STRUCK BY TRAIN LATE THURSDAY

Mrs. Sarah Pemberton Meets Instant Death When Hit By Pennsylvania Passenger Train at 6 O'clock Thursday Evening.

Struck by Pennsylvania East-bound passenger train No. 234 at the Miller street crossing in Cedarville, Mrs. Sarah Pemberton, widow of John Pemberton, of Cedarville, was instantly killed at 6:05 o'clock Thursday evening.

Mrs. Pemberton had left her home on Railroad street to mail a letter. She was seen just before the accident walking up the switch that leads into the Andrew Brothers coal yard, but evidently stepped from the switch tracks over onto the main line directly in front of the oncoming passenger train. Although the body was not badly mangled, she was dead when the first people arrived at the scene, S. C. Wright, of Cedarville, Deputy Probate Judge here, was on the fatal train and was the second to reach the body, which was removed immediately to the undertaking parlors of H. A. Barr, where funeral services will take place Saturday afternoon at two o'clock.

Mrs. Pemberton was born in Clark county and had lived near Springfield a number of years, moving to Cedarville with her husband 20 years ago. Mr. Pemberton, who was a Civil War veteran, died two years ago. She is the mother of 14 children. They are Mrs. Oscar Houk, of Springfield, Mrs. Ralph Truesdale, of Cedarville, Margaret, Minnie, Lucille, Donna, Harry, Samuel and George, of Cedarville, Jacob of Osgood, Indiana and Melvin, Robert, Kenneth and Lester, who are pupils at the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home here.

Three brothers, Harry Ensley of Springfield, George Ensley of Bellefontaine and Charles of Canada, and two sisters, Mrs. Howard Shook of Yellow Springs and Mrs. Della Wells of Bellefontaine also survive.

Pennsylvania passenger train, No. 234, leaves Xenia, at 5:50 o'clock and is due in Cedarville at 6:05. The train was in charge of Conductor Al Truman, of Columbus, and the engineer was Charles Ross of Cincinnati.

FAIL TO DISCOVER TRACE OF BANDITS WHO ROBBED CLERK

Bold Robbery In Cincinnati Perpetrated Thursday.

Cincinnati, O., April 8.—No trace had been found early this morning of the three unmasked bandits who last night covered the driver and a postal clerk of a U. S. mail truck with revolvers, handcuffed them to the machine and picked out three sacks of registered mail from the load of sixty sacks. An estimate of the amount secured by the bandits cannot be made at this time.

The hold up occurred at Baymiller and Carlisle Avenue, near the Baltimore and Ohio depot. The stolen sacks contained mail from Detroit and other points. The bandits unlocked the rear end of the mail truck with a duplicate key,

ALL NATIONS HAVE PROBLEMS

Washington, April 8.—Gov. W. P. G. Harding, head of the federal reserve banking system, blossomed out today as a business optimist. Commenting on the number of great problems which confront American business and which has led to some pessimistic utterances recently, Gov. Harding said:

"The only people who have solved all their problems are in the cemeteries. There are some regions of perennial sunshine—Death Valley and the desert of Sahara. Both are unfit for human habitation.

"Nations which have no problems are dead or decaying nations.

"Our business reaction has been violent. Its very violence means a speedy return to normal."

Gov. Harding said that the banks, can issue their debentures on obligations against foreign securities. The banks, Governor Harding finds are in excellent shape to take care of the situation until the agricultural

LAUNCH AGENCY FOR MARKETING OF GRAIN

Chicago, April 8.—The first co-operative agency for the marketing of the nation's grain crop has been definitely launched today with the adoption by delegates from 23 states of a report by the committee of seventeen recommending the establishment of a farmers grain marketing organization. The organization is to be known as the U. S. Grain Growers inc. All farmers who pay annual fee of $10 each will have the optional right of marketing their crops through the co-operative organization. At the end of the year a balance will be struck and all funds not needed for expenses will be returned to the farmers pro rata.

The organization proposes to build its own elevators and terminal warehouses and will establish its own market news service. A general headquarters will be maintained with branches at central points throughout the grain growing districts. A board of 21 directors will be chosen later to conduct the organizations affairs.

Grain exchanges and boards of trade were bitterly attacked by several delegates.

MOTORCYCLE RIDER KILLED IN SMASH

Dayton, O., April 8.—A broken neck caused by his motorcycle striking a telephone pole along the Cincinnati pike, near the Gov. Cox residence caused the death of Paul Hart, 20, last night. He recently came here from Johnson City, Tenn. Henry Player, riding with Hart, was little hurt.

TRIPLE ALLIANCE WILL STRIKE FORCING OUT FIVE MILLION BRITISH WORKERS

Situation In England Now Controlled By Miners Whose "Yes" Will Put Into Effect Sympathy Strike Paralyzing All Industry.

LAST DOOR TO PEACE IS CLOSED

Miners Refuse Invitation To Meet Premier and Owners Of Mines In Conference—Riots and Sabotage Still Continue.

London, April 8.—"The government has decided to advise the king that a situation has arisen which makes it necessary to call up reserves for the army," Premier Lloyd George announced in the house of commons this afternoon. Then he appealed amid cheers for an emergency force of citizens to support the police.

At the time he was speaking in parliament, the executive committee of the "triple alliance" was holding a "war council" at Unity House.

The alliance already has decided upon a strike of the transport workers and railwaymen to back up the miners. Whether and when the general strike is to be called depends upon the miners executive committee to whose shoulders the two other parties to the alliance have shifted the final decision for the step that would shake the kingdom to its foundations.

The premier read a proclamation by King George declaring that a national emergency exists and calling up army and navy reserves.

"We are fighting for the life of our community," said the proclamation which also calls for "volunteers for active service."

London, April 8.—The triple alliance has decided to strike. Announcement to that effect was made shortly after noon today by J. H. Thomas, head of the railway workers.

While the alliance strike call may be issued before the day is over, it is not expected to become fully operative until midnight Sunday.

Unless an eleventh hour development prevents executive of the decision, five million workers will be idle in the United Kingdom before the week is over.

Coming out of Unity Hall where he had conferred with the executive committee of the transport workers, Thomas said:

"Our decision is that the triple alliance will strike. It has been agreed that the strike will be controlled by a joint committee of the three bodies—miners, rail men and transport workers—and the decisive meeting of the alliance will occur this afternoon."

At 2:30 this afternoon it was officially announced by the transport workers executive that it had been empowered to call a strike at will. Delegates immediately went to their respective homes to prepare everything for the strike call which is expected to follow the triple alliance meeting this afternoon.

The transport workers declared the strike order will become operative "when the miners give the word for a sympathetic strike." This put a new aspect on the situation, placing the "big stick" of the final decision in the hands of the miners rather than of the triple alliance executives.

It is now up to the miners to say whether they want the alliance to go out. Their "yes" will be promptly followed by a general strike call.

The last door to peace was definitely closed when the secretary to Premier Lloyd George announced at 12:40 o'clock that the miners have refused the premier's latest invitation to meet him and the owners.

The miners refused the premier's invitation because Lloyd George had stipulated as a condition for the conference that the safety of the miners be discussed and decided before any other issues would be considered. That was the same stumbling block that prevented the materialization of yesterday's peace moves.

Expect Formal Call.

The triple alliance strike is expected to be formally called when the executives of the alliance meet at Unity Hall, this afternoon.

Riots and sabotage continue in the strike paralyzed coal fields. Mine after mine is being flooded. Even if the coal strike were to be called off today it would take many months to get production back to anywhere near normal. Some of the damage already done is irreparable.

Other great industries have begun to suffer. From Derbyshire came the word today that the big Slavery Iron works have had to be shut down owing to lack of coal. Three thousand workers were rendered jobless overnight. The Stanton Iron works also have been closed.

The same thing is being duplicated over and over in all parts of the kingdom. In the Eifeshire coal fields among the richest in Scotland floods swept the roads and many collieries are under water. New shafts will have to be constructed at those mines before another ton of coal can be produced.

The Evening News learns that at the request of the Borough mayors the transport workers agreed to safeguard London's food supply in the event of a general strike.

DUNN BILL WILL BE OPERATIVE AS LAW JULY 1

Measure Passes Senate By Vote Of 33 To 4 On Thursday

GOES TO HOUSE

Consolidates Over Sixty Existing State Bureaus Into Twenty

Columbus, O., April 8.—By a vote of 34 to 3, the Dunn emergency measure, providing for reorganization of state departments, passed the senate. The vote on the emergency clause, which was voted on first, stood 33 to 4.

When the senate and house reconvene April 18, the lower house is expected to act promptly in the matter of concurring in senate amendments. The bill will then go to Governor Davis. It is expected to become operative as law on July 1.

Senators Bender, Cuyahoga county, and Bucke, Lorain, Republicans, and Senator Reynolds, Cuyahoga, the lone Democratic member, voted against the emergency clause, and the bill proper. Senator Endly, Richland, Republican, opposed the emergency clause, but voted for the bill.

Although the senate recessed late yesterday until 5 p. m. April 18, the senate finance committee will hold almost daily sessions shaping the big appropriation bill so as to conform to provisions of the Dunn reorganization measure.

The Dunn bill consolidates over sixty existing state bureaus and departments into slightly in excess of 20 and places them under the direction of eight directors who will comprise the governor's cabinet, giving the state's chief executive greater control over them for purposes of economy and greater efficiency.

Democrats threaten to institute suit in the state supreme court in an effort to have the emergency clause declared unconstitutional and then submit the Dunn reorganization bill to a referendum vote at the November election.

Governor Davis issued a statement declaring that the members of the house and senate loyally upheld their party and its platform.

"We are very greatly pleased over the senate's action which allows the placing of the business of the state on a basis of strict economy and efficiency, which the people had a right to expect," said the governor.

Bankers and Exporters Must Keep Trade Moving

Interests get out of the "financial woods."

"In some sections the people must make up their minds that they must get some capital loans, although they may have to mortgage property in order to tide over the situation."

Dealing with the cotton industry particularly, Governor Harding said the only way out of the present depression is to develop and maintain foreign trade.

From any angle we look at the problem, the answer is the further development of foreign trade, not only with the idea of getting rid of our surplus products, but the more trade we have abroad, the more progress is made in world stabilization, and toward the resumption of normal conditions throughout the world.

"The reaction we had last year was sharper than any in our economic history."

"As far as credit is concerned times like these are not times when banks made new losses. It is safer to lend money now on present valuation than it was a year ago."

LEADING AUTHORITIES NOW SHOW JUST WHAT TANLAC REALLY IS

Physiological Action of Principal Ingredients of Celebrated Medicine On the Human System Is Explained.

SUPREMACY CLAIMS WELL SUPPORTED

Many of the Medicinal Elements Have Been Known and Used Since Civilization First Began.

Tanlac, the celebrated medicine, which has been accomplishing such remarkable results throughout this country and Canada, is composed of the most beneficial roots and herbs known to science. The formula is purely ethical and complies with all National and State Pure Food and Drug Laws. Altogether, there are ten ingredients in Tanlac, each of which is of recognized therapeutic value.

Many of these ingredients have been individually known and used since civilization first began and some of them have been used and prescribed by leading physicians everywhere, but until they were brought together in proper proportion and association, as in the Tanlac formula, humanity had not before realized their full value and effect.

In referring to one of the more important ingredients of Tanlac, the Encyclopedia Britannica says: "It has been the source of the most valuable tonic medicines that have ever been discovered." In referring to others of the general tonic drugs contained in Tanlac, the 13th Edition of Potter's Therapeutics, a standard medical text book, states that "They impart general tone and strength to the entire system, including all organs and tissues." This same well-known authority, in describing the physiological action of still another of the ingredients of Tanlac which is of value in treating what is commonly known as "a run down condition," uses the following expression: "It is highly esteemed in loss of appetite during convalescence from acute diseases."

There are certain other ingredients in Tanlac which, because of their influence upon the appetite, digestion assimilation and elimination, improve the nutrition and vital activity of the tissues and more important organs of the body, and produce that state of general tonic which is called Health.

The United States Dispensary makes the following comment regarding another ingredient: "It may be used in all cases of pure debility of the digestive organs or where a general tonic impression is required. Dyspepsia, atonic gout, hysteria and intermittent fever are among the many affections in which it has proven useful."

There are certain other ingredients described in the Dispensary and in other standard medical text books as having a beneficial action upon the organs of secretion, whose proper functioning results in the purification of the blood, streams passing through them. In this manner objectionable and poisonous ingredients of the blood are removed and the entire system invigorated and vitalized.

Tanlac was designed primarily for the correction of disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. At the same time, however, it is a powerful reconstructive tonic and body builder for it naturally follows that any medicine that brings about proper assimilation of the food and a thorough elimination of the waste products must, therefore have a far-reaching and most beneficial effect upon the entire system.

Although Tanlac's claims for supremacy are abundantly supported by the world's leading authorities, it is the people themselves who have really made Tanlac what it is. Millions upon millions have used it with gratifying results and have told other millions what it has done for them. That is why Tanlac has become the real sensation of the drug trade in this country and Canada, and that is also why it is having the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world today.

HOLD ANNUAL MEETING AT CHURCH

The annual meeting of the congregation of the First United Presbyterian Church was held in the dining room of the church Tuesday evening, April 15th. Almost three hundred of the members and friends of the congregation sat down to a table loaded with the luxuries of the season, and after an hour of feasting and fellowship the assembly was called to order by the chairman of the congregation Attorney L. T. Marshall, and the reports from the different organizations were heard with great interest. More than $15,000 has been contributed by the congregation in the past year and every organization showed a surplus in the treasury. Officers were elected for the ensuing year. After dinner speeches were made by Rev. S. E. Martin, D. D., a former pastor of the congregation who was called to this city by the serious illness of Mrs. Harriet Collins and also by Dr. Dodds, the pastor. Everyone was delighted with the snapper, the reports and the program for the coming year.

DIRECTOR GENERAL WILL BE SELECTED FOR SOLDIER AID

Washington, April 8.—Appointment of a director general to head the re-organized government agencies caring for disabled veterans will be one of President Harding's first steps toward improvement of this service, it was indicated today.

It is understood that several big men are already under consideration for the job. It was indicated that the type required is of the "dollar a year class" as the job is altogether out of proportion to any salary involved.

Among the men whose names have been mentioned for the post are Charles G. Dawes, Chicago banker, who headed the president's special committee on soldier relief, Col. F. W. Galbraith, national commander of the American Legion and General Pershing.

The latter officer's name has not been mentioned so prominently but there are a number of factors which make him a favored choice. As general of the armies, no ordinary assignment to duty would be fitting, his friends point out, while the post of director general of veterans relief would call for organizing ability of the highest order and a personal grasp of the whole problem.

General Dawes has an office in the war risk building, in connection with his committee work and has been deeply into the problems involved.

Col. Galbraith also has made a full study of the question.

The Dawes' reports call for a re-organizing of the relief agencies under one head directly responsible to the president, and suggests that this be accomplished by an order of the secretary of the treasury, pending legislation.

KRAMER'S RULING NOT APPROVED BY U. S. COMMISSIONER

Washington, April 8.—Tentative regulations for the prescribing of beer and wine by physicians, which have been drawn by prohibition Commissioner Kramer's legal staff, will not be approved by Revenue Commissioner Williams, he stated today.

Commissioner Williams said he would consider the regulations which are understood to limit beer prescriptions to two bottles a day, but that approval would be left to the new commissioner.

Attorney General Palmer's recent ruling holding that the government has no power to limit the amount of liquors that may be prescribed by physicians within a given period apparently was disregarded by Commissioner Kramer and his legal advisers. Commissioner Williams said that this particular phase of the matter is a vital one and that he is soon to go out of office the question of the government's policy under the Palmer opinion must be determined by his successor.

The draft of regulations said to have been drawn after Mr. Kramer's direction thus far only takes the form of suggestion, Williams said. "There is nothing definite or final. The suggestions outlined, imposing certain limits on the sale of beer and wine may be entirely changed. It is likely that my successor will have the power of approval will have a different view of what the Palmer opinion authorizes and what it prohibits."

It would be entirely misleading and incorrect to say that the tentative proposals of our prohibition unit will govern finally on beer and wine manufacture and sales. There are many questions which may arise which would cause a redrafting of the regulations suggested. I do not propose to pass finally upon this or any other important matter involving a question of new policy which in my opinion should be left to the next commissioner.

XENIAN ESCAPES INJURY IN WRECK

J. Charles Dodds, of this city, was among the passengers who escaped injury in the wreck in which five persons lost their lives and twenty were injured at New River, Tenn., when the Royal Palm of the Cincinnati Southern Railway was wrecked Wednesday.

Mr. Dodds was returning to this city after an extended business trip in the south. The coach in which he was a passenger was overturned, and struck the rough rocks on the mountain side. The wreck is thought to have been caused by the spreading of the rails. The engine, combination baggage, mail cars and two coaches were overturned. The sleeping cars remained upright.

The steel in the cars was bent in such a way that the passengers in Mr. Dodds' coach were pinned beneath the wreckage, several persons in this coach being injured. Fortunately Mr. Dodds escaped injury by being seated on the opposite side of the car.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY PRESENTS 2 PURSES

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Second United Presbyterian Church was entertained Wednesday afternoon in the Church parlors by Mrs. Frank P. Hastings. An interesting feature of the meeting was the presentation of a purse of $25 each to Mrs. Joseph Kyle, who for many years has been the secretary of the organization, and to Mrs. J. H. Webster, who for the past year has been its president. Mrs. Kyle and Mrs. Webster expect to leave Xenia for their new home in St. Louis, Mo. The money was presented in bouquets of calla lilies, a five dollar bill being wrapped around the pistil of each flower. The following presentation speech was made by Mrs. Charles P. Proudfoot, and is published by request:

"Today we are feeling the absence for the first time from the President's chair and the Secretary's desk, of the retiring officers, Mrs. Webster and Mrs. Kyle, and the sense of loss has tinged with sadness their otherwise delightful meeting. Their approaching departure from Xenia looms up as a great black cloud on our horizon, and its silver lining is to be found only in the memories they leave us of their years of fellowship and splendid service in this organization and congregation. Each one of us has been storing away as pearls in the jewel box of memory a rare collection of happy associations with our dear friends and co-workers.

"Now favor is an excellent thing much to be desired. You will recall that many years of the life of our Lord on earth are summed up in the words, 'And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man.' It is possible to be in favor and not to be loved. There are good women, capable, gifted and efficient, whom we admire and respect, but who do not inspire affection. They are worthy and upright, but because of aloofness, coldness or some minor unlovableness, have no pull on the heart-strings. And it is also possible to be loved without being in favor. There are great-hearted women, with so many foibles and shortcomings, that we love, pity and grow discouraged with them. But this is a royal combination. 'Loving favor'—how rare and precious, and how fittingly it describes the place Mrs. Kyle and Mrs. Webster occupy in the Second Church:—'affection, admiration, respect.

"Because we long to express our appreciation of their lives and work on behalf of the members of this missionary society, I have the honor to present to them an offering of flowers—lilies, white, as you have lived, spotless and unsmirched among us; fragrant, as the many good and kindly deeds that have emanated from your hearts and hands; their single petal curved and poised about the pistil in perfect balance and symmetry, as the one life of each of you, in the varied activities of the home, church and the community, has been kept well-balanced, poised and symmetrical about its center, Jesus Christ. We recognize that this sweetness of external expression springs from the pure gold of character. Representing this down in the golden heart of the flower we have placed a love offering. After obtaining the bouquets, there was a little sum remaining that we have dropped into the lily chalice. With it we desire you to purchase something that will voice in the years to come the 'loving favor,' in which we hold you.

"When you are transplanted to St. Louis there will be a big empty hole in the garden of Second Church, Xenia.

"But you will transplant well. We have no fear for your future. When the roots are reset in a different soil the Sun of Righteousness will warm you, the prayers of the Second Church will water you, and it is our belief and expectation that you will produce, in the new climate a large crop of the fruit of the Spirit. And we have this comforting assurance, the same Master Gardener watches over and tends both gardens.

"FADS AND FANCIES" WELL RECEIVED BY LARGE AUDIENCE ON THURSDAY EVENING

"Fads and Fancies," is a jazzy jamboree of mirth, music and melody. It is a pleasant potpourri of entertainment, an assemblage of novelties and features of vaudeville nature and professional tone, and a tuneful exhibition that stands out among theatrical exhibitions of the past.

The piece, under the auspices of Catherine Greene Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and directed and assisted in production by Alex Finkler, of the Marlatt-Cargill Production Company of Chicago, was presented for the first time to an audience that practically filled the Opera House Thursday night. It will be repeated Friday night, starting at 8:15 o'clock.

The musical show began promptly did not lag in its mid-section timing, and ended early enough to avoid tiredness. It presented many Xenia people who have popularized themselves with Xenia audiences in the past, and it introduced many new amateur players, who put themselves in the same standing of popularity, by their performance.

"Fads and Fancies," is presented in ten scenes, but each follows its predecessor so quickly, that there is no delay, with the shifting of scenery or curtains. Pretty settings and costumes were furnished by the producing company, and the training of the entire cast bespoke the efforts put into it by Mr. Finkler.

Morton Cresswell and Mrs. Charles Adair were assigned what must be termed the leads in the piece, although there were so many features outside the little plot that existed, that it is hard to pick the principal characters. Both of these entertainers have appeared before in local talent productions and were warmly welcomed by the audience. Their "Love Nest" song in Scene Five, and Mrs. Adair's singing of the "Japanese Sandman" near the finale, were especially pleasing features of their parts.

In the opening Miss Janice Owens as Mary Pickford and Forest Hurley as Douglas Fairbanks, brought to play some clever lines and a song and dance "Mary and Doug" that proved a hit. Mrs. Donna Lane, and her chorus in "Hold Me" opened up the second scene with a bang, and Mrs. D. D. Jones introduced a classical touch with her recitation of "Come to Arabia."

Incense burned and there was the mystery of the Orient in the scene that followed, with the oriental dance of a chorus of five, and the incense dance cleverly rendered by Miss Regina Hustmyer. The singing of "Kismet," by Miss Emma Davidson, in this part was heartily applauded.

"The Garden in Holland," at the beginning of Scene Four, with the chorus in Dutch Boy costumes, led by Mrs. Karl Babb, was exceedingly pretty and well received. Harry Kiernan and Roy C. Hayward offered some black face comedy in this scene, that was a pleasing diversion, and Mr. Kiernan sang "O Death Where is Thy Sting," while Mr. Hayward sang "Ohio." The scene concluded with "Whose Baby Are You," by Miss Janice Owens, with a chorus, the players picking out people in the audience, with their mirrors.

Parts cast in Scene Five, where a "plot begins, thickens and ends," were cleverly placed, and each player presented his or her lines with professional ease. Mr. Cresswell and Mrs. Adair were cast in the leads, as the bride and the groom. Mrs. James Wilson as the mother, Mr. Finkler as the best man, Frederick J. Slackford as the valet, Mrs. J. K. Williamson, the Ruin, Mrs. Lawrence Shields as the Modiste, all carried their parts well, giving exceptional bits of real acting for amateurs, while Mrs. Crawford Craig and Leigh Nisbet in lesser parts, were easy in their parts.

"The Old Fashioned Garden," by a chorus led by Miss Henrietta Logan, offered one of the prettiest settings of the entire show. On the darkened stage, the chorus girls wore corsage bouquets, from which concealed electric lights played on their faces. Forest Hurley, was another big hit in his rendition of the popular number "Avalon," with the bathing chorus assisting him, and the scene drew much applause and several encores.

Mrs. E. S. Myers, was a revelation to many Xenia people, in her classical dance, in which she showed talents, decidedly professional. Her dance was well received. Tom Kennedy, Philip Moore and Robert Shaw, following however, furnished a burlesque that drew considerable mirth from the audience.

Mr. Finkler, Dr. Hurley and Germaine Ball, offered a singing, instrumental and dancing number in Scene Nine, that gave the production a professional tone, their offering ranking with the best of vaudeville. Mr. Ball at the piano, diverged easily from the jazz to the classical while Mr. Hurley brought forth sweet tones from his muted cornet and his banjo. Mr. Finkler's singing and dancing proved how he earned the right to be on the Keith circuit at one time. The trio offered such popular numbers as "Grieving For You," "Broadway Rose," "Home Again Blues," "My Baby's Arms," "I Never Knew" and responded to an encore with "Mammy." Scene Nine concludes with Mrs. Charles Adair, and her pretty Japanese chorus in the rendition of the popular song "Japanese Sandman," which was one of the prettiest scenes of the performance. The ballet, Valse Lento, in which a Grecian chorus took part, and which concluded with a tableau, "The Joy of Youth," by Miss Gladys Shadrach and Miss Janice Owens, furnished the finale for the piece.

The Fairbanks orchestra, of Springfield, furnished accompaniment for the piece, but Mrs. G. I. Graham, of this city, who played during the entire practice sessions, was at the piano. Committee chairman who assisted in the production of the show were Mrs. A. C. Messenger of the executive committee, Mrs. Elbert Babb, of the ticket committee, Mrs. C. A. Weaver of the program committee and Mrs. W. H. McGervey of the talent committee.

PRICE OF FOUNTAIN BEVERAGES LOWER

At a meeting of Xenia druggists held at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday afternoon, the local men agreed upon a reduction, in the price of soda fountain beverages.

Spirits of those who crowd the fountains each evening rose 100 per cent when the glad news was let out Thursday afternoon. For they now can purchase a soda for the sum of 11 cents, a sundae for the same price, a fruit, sundae for seventeen cents, a coco cola for six cents, and malted milks for fifteen. "Ain't it a grand and glorious feeling" after all these months?

It is stated by local druggists that the reduction is not due to any decrease in their expenses. Although sugar and chocolate are slightly on the decline, fruits and other flavors remain at the old stand, and the Government still expects its war tax.

OPEN THREE HOLES AT COUNTRY CLUB; INSTRUCTOR SECURED

Louis Brandenburg, of Dayton, has been secured as professional golf player of the Xenia Country Club, according to the announcement just made, and will begin his duties here Saturday.

Mr. Brandenburg has been associated with a golf club maker in Dayton for some time, and is well informed on the construction of links as well as being qualified as an instructor in the game. He will bring a number of clubs, to the links Saturday afternoon for the inspection of members, and those who wish to outfit themselves may secure them and other supplies from him.

Mr. Brandenburg will also assist in laying out the course and will give lessons daily in how to play the game after the grounds are completed. Saturday there will be three practice holes ready for those who wish to develop their game over the week-end, but Mr. Brandenburg will hardly have time to give any instructions Saturday.

The links are being dragged and it is thought that the grass will be planted immediately following the rain assuring that the greens will be ready soon for play over the entire nine holes, which will be put in.

All prospective members of the club are invited to visit the Club Saturday.

An attractive figure is not a matter of size but of correct proportions. The stout women who are never spoken of as "stout" are those who give a little time and thought to proper corseting.

Rengo Belt Reducing Corsets give the wearer an appearance of slenderness. The exclusive Rengo Belt feature gives strength and support where the greatest strain falls—over the abdomen and hips. They have the reputation of being "the most economical reducing corsets ever devised."

PEACH CROP HURT SEVERELY BY FROST SAY OFFICIAL FIGURES

Except in the counties along Lake Erie the peach crop throughout the State is severely damaged by freezing. The injury is especially serious in the central and south-western parts of the State, according to C. J. West, Agricultural Statistician for Ohio. From present indications 94 per cent of the peach buds are killed in Ross County and 93 per cent in Washington County, while the damage in Lawrence County is apparently about 40 per cent. In Columbiana, Fairfield, Licking, Hamilton and some other important peach counties the damage ranges from 65 per cent to 90 per cent. For the State as a whole 32 per cent of the peach buds are reported killed.

Ohio peach orchards contain almost 3,000,000 trees of bearing age of which more than 1,000,000 are in the counties along the Lake and in which the damage from freezing is only slight. Lawrence is the largest peach county in the State, which lies south of the lake counties and has about 125 trees of bearing age while Ross and Washington each have around 35,000 trees.

The early varieties of apples were hard hit by the freeze but the winter varieties, especially the Rome Beauties, have not sustained serious damage. The highest per cent of damage is reported for Columbiana County and is placed at 58 per cent. Lawrence County, which has the largest number of bearing apple trees in the State, reports no damage from freezing, while Gallia, Washington, Muskingum, Meigs and some other counties of large apple interests report from 15 to 40 per cent injury. The average damage in the State was about 15 per cent.

Pears are extensively damaged, with a state wide average injury of 42 per cent. In Hamilton and Clermont Counties the damage is from 75 per cent to 90 per cent. In Erie, Ottawa and Lake Counties the injury is not serious.

The prospects for the plum and cherry crops are badly destroyed in many sections of the State. The State damage to plums is 54 per cent. Sixty two per cent of the sweet cherry buds are reported killed and the State damage to sour cherries is 48 per cent.

The per cent damage in Greene County is as follows: to apples 5 per cent; to peaches, 75 per cent; to pears, 60 per cent; to plums, 25 per cent; to sweet cherries, 0 per cent to sour cherries, 75 per cent.

Restaurant Man Couldn't Eat His Own Food

It's pretty tough for a restaurant man to have stomach trouble. My customers were always telling me I ought to eat in a good restaurant. The fact was I couldn't eat a thing that didn't bloat me up and no medicine or doctors helped me. I tried everything recommended and at last Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and I assure you I didn't have to look any further. Since taking it I have been a well man. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One does well convince or money refunded. All Drugists.

J. ELWOOD MYERS SUFFERING FROM A BULLET WOUND

J. Elwood Myers, 44, founder of the Elwood Myers Company, prominent Springfield business man, is in the City Hospital in that city, with a bullet wound in his head, from which he has only a slight chance for recovery.

Myers was found lying on the floor at his residence at 11:45 o'clock Thursday morning, by a domestic. He was removed shortly afterward to the City Hospital where physicians say an X-Ray will be taken in an effort to trace the bullet.

A nervous breakdown, following a long period of hard work in which he built up his business to the point where it amounted to more than two million dollars last year is given by his uncle Scipio E. Baker, as the cause for the shooting, and not to financial troubles. The Elwood Myers Company is said to be solid financially, and it is believed by relatives that overwork caused a strain that resulted in a temporary mental derangement.

Mrs. Myers called from the bedside of her father in Cincinnati, and his mother, Mrs. E. Myers, are heart broken. There are five Myers children, two sets of twins aged 8 and 9 years, respectively and a daughter, aged 11.

LOCAL BOYS MAY TAKE COURSE IN CAMP THIS SUMMER

Boys from Central High School are again invited to take the course in military-physical training to be given during July and August at Camp Roosevelt, near Muskegon, Michigan, under command of Captain F. L. Beals, U. S. A. Word to that effect has been received by Superintendent of Schools C. A. Waltz, from Mr. Peter A. Mortenson, Superintendent of Chicago Public Schools.

During the past two summers, thousands of boys underwent training at the encampment, and it is expected this number will be greatly increased this year.

Camp Roosevelt is intended as a living memorial to the principles of military and physical fitness which the name suggests and is established by the Chicago Board of Education with the sanction and support of the U. S. War Department. In order to stimulate interest in military and physical preparedness, Camp Roosevelt is all-American and recruits are received from all parts of the country. At the Executive Headquarters, Room 403, 650 South Clark street, applications are steadily coming in from practically every state in the Union.

The camp is divided into three sections, the R. O. T. C. for boys of high school age, the summer high school and the Scoutcraft Division for the younger boys. For the boys in the R. O. T. C. section there will be training in drill formations, marching, ground aviation, marksmanship, ground aviation, signalling. Boys who desire to make up high school subjects or to advance in their school work, will be enrolled in the summer high school where, all of the academic subjects including woodworking, auto mechanics, ground aviation, wireless, will be taught. The Chicago Board of Education authorized the acceptance of these credits. For the Scoutcraft Division, a special course of instruction in Scoutcraft and Woodlore will be arranged. The athletic program for all boys in camp includes swimming, baseball, gymnastics, basketball, hiking, etc.

Captain F. L. Beals, U. S. A. Commandant of the Camp, will have associated with him officers and instructors of the highest type especially selected because of their fitness for summer camp work.

This year, the camp will open on July 3, and will be conducted in periods of two weeks each. No recruit will be accepted for less than two weeks, although enlistments may be made for two, four, six or eight weeks, as desired. An enrollment fee of $2.00 is charged and there is an additional fee of $16.00 for each two-week period for each two-week period for each recruit for the training, mess privileges and other expenses. Beyond these charges everything will be free to the recruits. The principal expense of the camp is borne by a group of patriotic Chicago business men who are interested in making the Camp Roosevelt Plan a nation-wide success.

"This camp is one of the finest camps in the United States," is the statement of Professor C. A. Waltz, Supt. of Xenia Schools. "The advantages medical, educational and moral, are of the very highest standard."

Any boy who desires to enjoy these benefits is asked to see Superintendent Waltz who will furnish them with all details.

J. FULTON FERGUSON C. OF C. SECRETARY IN NEW ENGLAND

An interesting leaflet has been received in regard to J. Fulton Ferguson, former Xenian, son of Mrs. Lydia M. Ferguson, of this city, who has been recently elected to the position of Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce at New Haven, Connecticut. Mr. Ferguson was elected at the eighty-first annual meeting of that organization on March 30.

In reference to the recommendation of the Nominating Committee of the organization, the pamphlet made the following statements concerning Mr. Ferguson's capability: James Fulton Ferguson, the candidate for Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, has proved his qualifications for this office in important positions of executive responsibility. He was one of a considerable group of men who were called out of academic life by the war and who have made a marked success in their participation in practical affairs. He is just leaving the position of Scout Executive for the City of New Haven, in which he has done work noticeably efficient and of a constructive quality for the last year and a half.

Mr. Ferguson was educated at the Xenia (Ohio) High School, Antioch College of Ohio, Monmouth College of Illinois and Yale University, receiving from the latter his degree of B. A. in 1906 and degree of Ph. D. in 1912. He also attended the University of Berlin Summer School in 1914. His record as a teacher included a year at Williams College, two years at Yale and six years at Bryn Mawr college, where he was Associate Professor, teaching principally history.

Mr. Ferguson, who married the daughter of a well-known New Haven family, has been actively identified with New Haven interests during his various years of residence in this city. He was Captain of one of the teams in the Community Chest Drive. He has recently been made an officer of the North Church on the Green.

SUGGESTIONS FOR HOUSE-WIVES.
Wall Paper Cleaner—Take ten cents' worth of liquid ammonia, ten cents' worth of oil of sassafras, one teaspoon soda, one tablespoon of salt, one quart of cold water. Mix ingredients together, then add white flour until thick enough to drop from a spoon. Put it in a covered pail, set in a kettle of boiling water, cook until well done. Stir often. If it does not stick to the hands when cool it is done. Divide into loaves that are easily handled. Work each piece well. Take out only what you are using. Keep the rest well covered. Rub the wall with the loaf, working the dirt into the dough. When too dirty, get a clean loaf. This is a good cleaner; makes old paper like new.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.
Bread Griddle Cakes—Heat one and one-half cups milk, put in one and one-half cups fine bread crumbs and two tablespoons butter. Cover and let stand about fifteen minutes, or until bread is soft. Press through sieve. Add two well beaten eggs and pour this mixture into dry ingredients, which have been sifted, consisting of one-half cup flour, one-half teaspoon salt and two teaspoons baking powder.

Shepherd's Pie—Mix two cups of chopped meat (packed), one teaspoon salt, one-quarter teaspoon pepper, one teaspoon onion juice, one teaspoon chopped parsley and enough gravy stock or water to just moisten the whole. Put into a greased baking dish, spread over with two cups mashed potatoes, dot with butter and reheat and brown in a hot oven.

The potatoes must be light and creamy, but not very soft, else the juice from the meat will bubble through. Left-over cooked rice or time, clothing is needed by the workers, and donations of children's clothes will be gladly received.

The Revolt of Vera Sanderson

By JANE PHELPS.

CHAPTER 10. MADCAP SALLIE ARRIVES

Sallie wrote me at once that she would leave in a day or two.

"I am crazy to see your home and your relatives," she wrote. "I shall be afraid of that sister-in-law I expect. I know Keith can be awfully dignified, and so perhaps she is more so. You never have given us much of her in your letters. I have one new dress, a dandy, and a peach of an evening gown. It's a good thing you asked me while they were fresh. I should like to make a good impression on my little sister's relatives."

"I see you have turned match-maker! Is that the result of getting married yourself? Do you find it such a state of bliss that you want me to experience it also? I like his name, Jack Underwood. Sounds rather fetching. I think. I hope you haven't talked of me to him in the way the family dub me as 'Madcap Sallie'. It would be embarrassing when I have decided to be as dignified as an older sister should be."

"Really, Vera, joking aside, I am wild to come. And thank you for asking me."

"Really, Vera, joking aside, I am wild to come. And thank you for asking me."

There was much more, most of it about the family. Usually I showed all my home letters to Keith—perhaps that might have influenced me in not alluding in my letters to her about Margaret, my position in the household. But I did not show this one to him. I didn't want him to know I had written Sallie about Jack Underwood, so I pretended I had mislaid it, and just told him the folks were well and that Sallie would be with us on Friday. It was then Tuesday.

"Tell Margaret at once. She may have plans that would be upset in some way."

I did as he suggested. Margaret was nicer than I had feared she would be, and consequently I felt happy over Sallie's coming.

It was mid-afternoon when the train arrived. I had asked Margaret for the car, swallowing my pride in that so that I might exhibit it in another way by meeting Sallie in the smart new car Keith had just bought.

"You will have to take a taxi. I am making some calls this afternoon," was Margaret's calm answer.

"Very well. I thought perhaps it would be just a little nicer to meet Sallie in the car as I had written her Keith bought a new one for us." How I wished I might say "for me."

"A taxi will do just as well." I said no more but it was all I could do to keep from crying. It was foolish but I had wanted to impress Sallie with the new car. But when I saw her pretty piquant face I forgot everything save that she was with me that I had someone belonging to me to talk to.

"Hello kid!" she greeted me as I flung my arms around her neck and almost wept with joy. "Goodness me, but Cinderella has blossomed out! Married life agrees with you, Vera. I like the way you do your hair," all this before we found a taxi or gave the check for her trunk to the expressman.

"Where's the new car you wrote about in such glowing terms?" she asked as we stepped into the taxi.

"Margaret is making calls this afternoon."

"Um—"

"Oh I am glad you have come!" I paid no attention to her grunt. I was so glad, so happy to see her and be with her.

"How do you like having new clothes instead of made-overs?" she asked after speaking of my tailor suit.

"It's nice of course to have new clothes, but I don't have as many as I would, or as Keith can afford to let me because"—I stopped. Sallie had hardly left the train and here I was complaining already. It was not very nice in me to begin so soon to let her hear the bones of my family skeleton rattle.

"Why don't you?"

"Oh well, he likes Margaret to go with me, and she always tries to make me save on them."

"Indeed she is not! She is very extravagant." Then I added, "Perhaps she doesn't think it extravagant. Before Keith married me she was all he had, and she spent most of his money."

"Keeps it up now, too, eh? I see the cloud that hasn't any silver lining. But brace up, keep a stiff upper lip and demand what belongs to you."

"Oh, you don't know Margaret or you wouldn't say that!"

Tomorrow—Sallie is Awed by Her Reception.
